FRANK LANG HONORED WITH LIFETIME ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

BLOOMINGTON, MN, April 30, 2010 – The Minnesota Multi Housing Association (MHA) recognized Francis W. Lang with its Lifetime Achievement Award. The award was presented on April 16 at MHA's Multi Housing Action Council (MAC) luncheon at The Minikahda Club in Minneapolis.

Frank Lang is CEO and President of Lang Nelson Associates, one of the largest wholly owned multi-housing management companies in the state of Minnesota, and has been involved in developing, investing and managing real estate for over 40 years. Lang Nelson Associates has been a member of the Minnesota Multi Housing Association for more than three decades.

Lang is an accredited Certified Apartment Manager, past President of the Minnesota Multi Housing Association (1981) and a past member of its Board of Directors. He has served as Chairman of the Multi-Housing Legislative Committee and the Minnesota Apartment Council for which he also served as a Trustee.

"Frank is an astute businessman and a passionate, committed and charismatic leader. His efforts have elevated the stature of the industry," said Mary Rippe, President of Minnesota Multi Housing Association (MHA).

A graduate of St. Thomas University, Lang is on their Board of Directors, has served on the Advisory Boards of the University of St. Thomas and Summit Academy, and is Chairman of the Board for the Saint Thomas Academy Hockey Arena. He and his wife, Elaine are residents of Edina.
